The longest poll got the persimmon at Charlotte. That's it in a nut shell.

Did you stay away from church yesterday to watch the eclipse of the sun?

It looks like some folks' slate got terribly smashed in Charlotte late last Saturday night.

It is not so certain now who are to be the Democratic party's nominees for Governor and Senator in 1912.

The Presidential nomination for the man who owns a newspaper is the biggest advertisement any paper could have.

The Charlotte convention put the hand writing on the wall, and some folks' knees are shaking and their hearts quaking.

Wonder if there is going to be much ginger and other kinds of spice in the Democratic campaign in this State this year?

There is going to be rattling of political dry bones in this State during the next four years, and don't you forget the prediction.

We would like to own the Commoner's mailing sheets for the next four months. There will be big money in them for the man who owns them.

It is said Horne would have drawn out of the race earlier had not the Craig men insisted that he should not do so, for the latter soon found that abandonment of the contest meant Kitchin's nomination.

It is said that a large majority of the delegates at the Democratic convention of this State at heart opposed the adoption by that body of resolutions instructing for Mr. Bryan at the national convention; but yet—.

The Star had its choice for Democratic candidate for Governor. The man of its choice was defeated. It will not sulk for that reason, but will heartily support that of the Democracy of the State as represented by the delegates at the State convention.

Governor Patterson gained a complete victory over Senator Cormack in the Tennessee primary for the Democratic nomination for Governor. A significant fact about the result of the primary is that the successful candidate represented the anti-prohibition faction of the Democratic party in the State.

CONVENTION ENDED

State Ticket Completed, Platform Adopted and Bryan Endorsed All Before Midnight.

SIMMONS MADE A DELEGATE

Opposition to Him Sizzled Out Yesterday Morning—Slight Deadlock on Several of Minor Offices. Closing Scenes in Charlotte.

(By Associated Press.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 29.—The Democratic State Convention which has been in session here a week adjourned sine die at midnight, crowning its labors by instructing for William Jennings Bryan by a vote of 523 to 194.

The fight over the Bryan instructions occupied the closing hour of the convention and was threshed out amid considerable confusion, the Bryanites winning in a walk when the roll was called. The convention completed the State ticket, elected delegates to the Denver convention and adopted a platform during the session which began at 10 o'clock this morning.

The fight on United States Senator Simmons which promised to develop into something sensational when the convention took a recess Sunday morning sizzled out today. Only one delegate had the temerity to face the convention with his opposition to Simmons as a National delegate and he was hissed and hooted to the extent that he could not finish his speech. To satisfy everybody the chairman ordered a roll call and but ten votes were cast against Mr. Simmons. The convention then went to work on the State ticket and the contests which developed in every instance promised to keep the delegates another day, but everything was finally settled before adjournment.

The delegates at large to the National convention are: Senator Lee S. Overman, Senator F. M. Simmons, Governor Robert B. Glenn and Major E. J. Hale; alternates, General Julian S. Carr, of Durham; W. L. Parsons, of Richmond; E. F. Walton, of Wayne, and J. W. Bailey, of Wake

For the State officers Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes; Auditor, Benjamin F. Dixon; Treasurer, B. R. Lacy; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. Y. Joyner, and Commissioner of Insurance J. R. Young, had no serious opposition and were re-nominated.

Contests developed over the other State offices and there were two brief deadlocks. The results follow:

Attorney General, T. W. Bickett, of Franklin.

Commissioner of Agriculture—W. A. Graham, of Lincoln.

Corporation Commissioner—B. F. Aycock, of Wayne.

Commissioner of Labor and Printing—M. L. Shipman, of Henderson.

J. W. Bailey, of Wake, and Walter Murphy, of Rowan, were chosen electors at large.

The platform prepared by a commission of which former Lieutenant Governor Doughton was the chairman was adopted without a dissenting vote. It approves the administration of Governor Glenn, scores the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill and condemns the extravagance of the last Congress, without touching upon any new ground. The only feature to enliven the proceedings of the closing day was the warm debate over the Bryan instructions and this dwindled into insignificance when the roll was called, the Bryanites snowing under the opposition by an overwhelming vote.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 29.—The fifth day of the Convention proved as full of kicking, noise and heated debates as any of the days before. It got down to business at 10:15 this morning and the first matter before the convention was the question of electing Senator Simmons a delegate to the Denver convention.

A couple of delegates undertook to attack the Senator but were howled down amid cries, hoots and invitations to sit down, his friends demanding a roll call, 330 out of 340 representatives voted for Simmons. The remaining delegate was Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, Senator Overman and Governor R. B. Glenn, delegates at large being already elected.

At 9 o'clock tonight the convention was voting for Corporation Commissioner, Aycock of Wayne, finally winning out.

Fight For Attorney General.

The sensation of the day occurred when nominations for Attorney General were presented to the convention, the nominees being T. W. Bickett, of Franklin; Judge B. B. Winborne, of Hertford; Hayden Clement, of Rowan, and Jno. E. Woodard, of Wilson. There was considerable strife over how Mecklenburg's vote should be cast, according to the primary or on a basis agreed upon by a majority of the delegation. Mr. Bickett appeared and said he appreciated more than he could tell the loyalty of the Mecklenburg men, and while he recognized the points were such that able men might differ over them, nevertheless, he didn't want any shadow at all on his nomination, and then he asked that Mr. Clement's strength be

COOK AND RIGGINS TRIAL

Charged With Complicity in Murder of Banks Rothwell on Masonboro Last September—Bolton and Wells Guilty.

All of an eight-hour session of the Superior Court was taken up yesterday in selecting a jury and beginning the trial of the case of E. T. Cook and Jesse Riggins, young white men of Delgado, charged with complicity in the murder of Banks Rothwell, colored, at his home in Masonboro township September 24th last year.

The jury was selected from a special venire of 100 and a large number of additional talesmen at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon when a recess was taken until 4:30 P. M., the evidence of several witnesses having been heard before the recess for the day at 6 o'clock. It will be recalled that Rothwell was shot after being called from his house by young Cook and Riggins, who were armed with a warrant from Magistrate Ray, of Delgado, for his arrest on a charge of stealing turpentine from L. M. Bryant, a white man, who had made threats against Rothwell and who accompanied the young men with the warrant. Bryant has since fled the county. After Rothwell was shot the men ran said nothing about their encounter with Rothwell until Cook and Riggins heard that the negro was dead. They then gave themselves up and have been in jail since. Neither is over 25 years of age and in court yesterday were much bleached by their long confinement. They are represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq., while Solicitor Duffy is being assisted for the State by Woodus Kellum, Esq.

The first witness yesterday was Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, who testified that Rothwell was wounded in the back with a 38-calibre pistol ball, two shots having been fired, one of which took effect and the other being fired into the house as Rothwell turned to enter after being shot the first time.

Annie Rothwell, widow of the dead man, next testified and told of standing at the window and witnessing the tragedy from the first, she having been up with a sick child at the time. Two men, whom she could not identify further than that they were white, she said, came to the house and called for her husband. He came out and the two men laid hold of him, each by an arm. As Rothwell endeavored to free himself from their grasp, a third man stepped from behind a tree and fired twice. Her husband tottered in the house, fell and was dead in a short time. He had no weapon and made no assault upon the men.

Mr. Owen Martindale on whose place Rothwell lived was next introduced to corroborate the woman, which he did in all material points. He told of the tracks about the yard, the chase with the bloodhounds and said that Rothwell had no arms in his house except two old rusty breechloaders that were in the corners and had not been recently fired.

This closed the case for the day and Judge Peebles gave the usual instructions and ordered the jury kept together in charge of an officer. The jury is composed of Messrs. R. A. Kingsbury, W. B. Munroe, John W. Betson, E. M. Cheek, James. A. Price, W. W. King, Jr., D. S. Reville, Andrew Blair, V. M. Gilbert, W. A. Thomah, Nicholas Morris, and J. C. McCartney.

John O. Jones and B. F. Keith, jurors summoned for the day, were called out and fined $40 each for non-attendance.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the jury which had been out since the afternoon before in the case of Robert Bolton and Tom Wells, came into court and returned a verdict of guilty of assault with attempt to commit a felony. Yesterday they were sentenced to terms of 15 and 10 years respectively in the State penitentiary.

Just before court adjourned yesterday Brooke G. Empie, Esq., made an effort to get up the trial of Mary McDaniel, the colored woman charged by the State Insurance Department with setting the fire which burned a block of buildings, including a negro church in the southern part of the city some months ago. Judge Peebles stated that Wednesday the case of Tim Clemmons, charged with criminal assault, would be taken up and he would reach the McDaniel case if possible. Court would be held Saturday, regardless of the holiday according to his present intentions and if necessary he would run over into next week. Mr. Empie said that he would enter the plea of insanity or he would plead not guilty, whichever would result in bringing his client to trial earliest. A recess was then taken until 9 A. M. today when the Cook and Riggins trial will be resumed.

Souvenir Night at Lumina.

An attractive feature of the souvenir dance at Lumina last evening was the special courtesy of free drinks at Van-Duzen's refreshment palace. These were daintily served and were refreshing and delightful, the dancers expressing their highest appreciation for his thoughtful favor. The dancing last evening was unusually popular and the souvenir feature was an interesting success.

Kinston, N. C., June 29.—But for Umpire Henderson's miserable breaks in the fourth inning today's game was the prettiest seen on the home diamond this season. Neither side had scored when in the fourth inning, with one out and a runner on third and second, Rath hit a hot liner to McCoy at third, who touched the runner six feet off the bag and then threw to first catching Rath by a good yard.

The umpire, turning from one base to the other got lost and called both men safe. The spectators, for the first time in the history of professional ball here, crowded into the diamond, protesting and but for vigorous work of the president and manager of the Kinston ball team, assisted by the Mayor and police, the game would have been stopped. Being rattled by this, or angered, the pitcher gave men bases on balls, seemingly without any reason whatever, forcing in two runs. The game will be protested, of course. A home run by Smith in the sixth was a feature and with the above exception it was a beautiful game.

The Game in Detail.

First Inning—Flynn out, short to first; Hoey out, third to first; Kite singled, but Doak flew out to left. No runs, one hit. Kinston: Ryan out, third to first; Dunn out, pitcher to first; Sullivan hits safe to centre field but C. Sullivan flew out to left field.

Second Inning—Smith out, short to first; Rath fouled out to catcher; Carneal flew out to second. Kinston: Buck out to left field; McCoy singles over second; Wooten hits to second and is safe, but two others are down before any runs are made.

Third Inning—Jayes safe on wild throw, third to first; Webster out, hit by batted ball; Jayes steals second and third; Flynn flew out to left; Hoey out, second to first. Kinston: Adams drew a pass; R. L. Fox fanned; Ryan out to short; Adams out trying to steal second.

Fourth Inning—Kite out, short to first; Doak safe on bad throw of short to first and steals second; Rath safe, error third; Smith singles and the bases are full; Carneal up and with two strikes on him, gets four balls and forces Doak home; Jayes strikes out but the bases are still full; Webster gets another pass after two strikes are called and Smith is forced home; Flynn singles and Rath scored, but Carneal is caught at the home plate. Kinston: Dunn hits safely to centre; Sullivan fans; C. Fox hits to short and Dunn is out at second; Buck is safe on error of third, but McCoy flies out to third.

Fifth Inning—Hoey out, third to first; Kite fans; Doak out, third to first. Kinston: Wooten flies to centre; Adams out, second to first; R. L. Fox out, second to first.

Sixth Inning—Smith first up for Wilmington smashes one over the fence and trots home; Rath fanned; Carneal fouled to catcher. Kinston: Ryan drew a pass; Dunn out, short to first; Sullivan hits hot to pitcher and Ryan scored on the throw to first; C. Fox forces Sullivan, short to second; Buck forces Fox, third to second.

Seventh Inning—Webster made scratch hit to right; Flynn sacrifices; Hoey forces Webster, short to third; Kite up and Hoey steals second; Kite out, short to first; Webster injures his ankle and is replaced by Bussey. Kinston: McCoy singled between short and third; Wooten flew out to short; Adams fans; R. L. Fox out, second to first.

Eighth Inning—Doak smashed out a double after one ball had been called on him; Smith strikes out; Rath fouled out to catch; Carneal hits to left, Doak goes to third; Jayes up and Carneal is out trying second. Kinston: Ryan out, second to first; Dunn fans; Sullivan flies out to right.

Ninth Inning—Jayes singled; Bussey flew out to first; Flynn up and Jayes steals second; Flynn hits to second and is out but Jayes is on third, but Hoey flew out to short.

WILL NAVIGATE THE AIR

Wilmington Inventor Perfects Ship Combining Active Principles of Both Aeroplane and Automobile—Enter Government.

Mr. D. Palmgren, the well known Swedish watchmaker at the store of Mr. F. A. Bissinger, on Market street, yesterday announced that he had completed mechanical drawings for an entirely new airship for which he will at once secure letters patents and build a machine for entering the United States government competitive tests to be held in August at Hammonsport, New York.

Mr. Palmgren, who has achieved distinction not only in this country but abroad for mechanical engineering and inventive genius, displayed these drawings to a representative of the Star, who found that from all appearances the Wilmington inventor has something decidedly worth while, the new machine combining the active principles of both the aeroplane and the automobile, gaining its power of ascent from an increased speed appliance to the mechanism of the automobile, capable of being operated both on land and in the air.

It is 32 feet long, 38 feet wide, tip to tip and has two steering mechanisms, one for land and the other for the air. Experiments with models convince the inventor that the principles are correct, the experience of other aeronauts both in this country and abroad having been taken advantage of and developed far beyond their present accomplishments. Apparatus is installed for detecting the slightest variations from horizontal position and the machine is made so strong of steel, aluminum and silk rigging that stress of weather cannot affect it. It embodies the principle of the parachute with collapsible wings minimizing the possibility of accident..

Mr. Palmgren has been six months perfecting his present machine, though he has done other mechanical work that has brought him prominence in this and his native country. The working machine for the government tests will cost $5,000. Mr. Palmgren has enlisted the co-operation of his employer, Mr. F. A. Bissinger, in assisting him with further experiments and others will yet be interested.

TWO DIE IN SAME FAMILY

Mrs. Emma Piner and Daughter, Mrs. Herring Will be Buried Today.

Particularly sad is the coincidence in the death of Mrs. Emma Piner and her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Herring, both occurring within twenty-four hours of each other, at their home No. 29 Kidder street. Mrs. Piner, is an aged lady, who several years ago had the misfortune to lose both legs as the result of a street car accident, and since had been an invalid. Her death had been expected for some time, owing to her serious condition, and occurred Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Herring has been suffering with typhoid fever for several days, and her illness was such that friends were loth to inform her of her mother's death. Mrs. Herring continued to grow worse and death relieved her of her suffering early yesterday morning. The elderly lady was 65 and Mrs. Herring was in her 47th year.

The home tomorrow will be the scene of a double funeral, conducted by Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, and the remains of the deceased will be interred in the same plat at Oakdale cemetery.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN

Special Meeting Last Night to Grant Liquor License Renewals For Last Term.

CASE OF HEALTH OFFICERS

Report of Sanitary Committee as to Mr. Hewlett Postponed While Mr. Holton is Permanently Dismissed— Discussion.

The Board of Aldermen was in special session a little more than two hours last night passing upon applications for renewal of liquor licenses for the six months ensuing July 1st and hearing the report of the Sanitary Committee upon its investigation of charges preferred by the Superintendent of Health against Inspectors E. W. Hewlett and J. H. Holton, postponing action as to the first named for the hearing of new evidence by the committee, and going beyond the recommendation of a majority of the committee in the case of Mr. Holton, dismissing him from the service permanently.

The batch of applications for renewal of liquor licenses as recommended by the committee was approved and a renewal of the license of Mr. E. A. Todd, at Fourth and Church streets, to which there was some objection and which was reported to the Board without recommendation, was finally granted by a vote of six to four, after some considerable discussion. The application for renewals will go over to the Board of County Commissioners today so that all may be in due form by July 1st. There is a decrease in the number all told to 59, many of the dealers preparing to get from under before the prohibition law goes into effect on January 1st. The list is given below:

The meeting was called to order in the City Court room shortly after 8 o'clock, Mayor Springer presiding and all members of the Board present, including Dr. C. P. Bolles, who has been away for several months and was cordially received by his colleagues upon his return to the official circle. The special committee on liquor licenses and the standing committee on Sanitary, made reports.

Alderman French read a letter from the Clarendon Water Works Co., to Fire Chief Chas. Schnibben, notifying him that the water has been shut off from the Standard Oil Company hydrant, near Second and Brunswick streets, and that it will continue to be shut off until payment of water rental is made. The matter was referred to the chairman of the Water Works Committee. Alderman Northrop explained in this connection that the Standard Oil Company had agreed to pay the rental on this hydrant if the city would have the same installed. The Water Works Committee will look into the matter.

The list of applicants for renewal of liquor licenses as recommended by the committee was read and approved. There was a contest only on the issuance of license to E. A. Todd, at Fourth and Church, objection being not to Mr. Todd as a proper person but as to the location. Two petitions, for and against, the issuance of the license, were presented and read. Alderman O'Brien moved that the license be granted. Alderman Northrop opposed the granting of the license, saying Mr. Todd had already been given license to retail liquor at two other places and he should be content.

Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared as counsel for Mr. Todd, and introduced Mr. Hill, Mr. T. J. Duffy and others who favored granting the license. At this juncture Alderman Northrop made the point that the open Board was no place to hear verbal testimony; it should be submitted to the committee and the Board should act upon recommendation. The Mayor sustained the point made by Mr. Northrop and no further testimony was heard.

Mr. Kellum was given permission to address the Board and did so at some length, analyzing both petitions. The petitioners against granting the license were J. E. Hatch, R. H. Brady, J. H. Burriss, F. B. LeGwin, Iredell Meares and H. C. Hamlin.

Alderman Jewell was called upon and stated that he lived in a block of the place complained of and it was as quiet and as orderly as there is in Wilmington. Mr. Northrop asked Mr. Jewell if he had not told him (Mr. Northrop) that he would like to see that saloon away from that corner. Mr. Jewell said personally he would like to see it away, but there had been a saloon there for 16 years and he could wait until the first of January.

Alderman O'Brien spoke again and said he couldn't help believe there was some prejudice in the matter.

A vote was called at length and the license was granted by a vote of four to six, those voting in the affirmative being Messrs. Bolles, Karr, O'Brien, Rathjen, Jewell and King.

Case of Sanitary Officers.

The report of the Sanitary Committee was read by Chairman Ellis finding that in investigating the charges against Health Officer E. W. Hewlett, the Superintendent of Health was ful-

"CAMPAIGN REFORMS."

Under the above heading the Statesville Landmark of recent date contained a very sensible editorial. It was written just prior to the meeting of the State convention in Charlotte last week. It starts out by saying that "it is hoped the State will never again witness a similar pre-convention canvass." In this wish we heartily join with the Landmark. No one can deny the truth of its assertion that "not only has the canvass aroused much bitterness, but the cost in money to the candidates and their friends has been enormous." The Landmark is right in the assertion. There are 98 counties in the State and a paid corps of workers must be maintained by each candidate for an office in every county in the State in addition to State headquarters and other general expenses. More of this expense is legitimate, as canvassing for nomination is now looked upon.

But are these legitimate expenses in such contests, or rather should there be such contests at all? Should the people of our State submit to such proceedings for the purpose of selecting the candidate for the high office of Governor of the State? When boiled down to solid facts isn't it a species of barter and sale of the office? It may not be so in actual dollars and cents, but isn't it so in their equivalent? Money is not spent to buy delegates direct, but money is spent to influence the votes of the people who have themselves or their friends chosen as delegates.

The system is all wrong and there should be some change made. What the change from the present system should be we are not prepared to suggest but that there should be a change no man who favors greater purity in politics can deny. Will a State primary bring about the desired change? We have our doubts about it. The same kind of contest would be carried on in the pre-primary contest.

The only remedy in our opinion, and it will be one hard to inaugurate, is to educate the people up to a higher standard of politics—to lead them beck to the old principle in matters political that the office should seek the man and not the man the office, that any man who turns heaven and earth, who hires a cohort of supporters and who spends more than the emoluments of the office in order to induce enough members of a convention to vote for him and uses all kinds of parliamentary rules in the convention to secure the nomination, is not a fit person to represent the people in that office. This is no political Utopia that we advocate—it is only a return to the former days of purer politics, to the time when men who took such steps as successful candidates now take to secure the nomination and subsequent election would be considered by their closest political allies as unworthy of the support of those friends.

When the people get back to those days and those methods then politics as so often conducted, will not be a stench in the nostrils of honest men and so many persons of both political parties will not be heard declaring that they are disgusted with the conduct of their party leaders and cannot take part in the election or in the nomination of candidates.

THE CAROLINA PRESENTATION.

We believe it has been decided, after all the contradictory announcements and changes of programme that the cruiser North Carolina will be off Morehead on next Friday to receive the gift of the silver service from the State. The Governor of the State cannot be present at this, one of the most important public functions that has taken place in the State since he has been its chief executive. This is to be greatly regretted, but he has got to be in the distance State of New York to make a speech to Tammany Hall—a political matter, and, of course, he can not break that engagement to keep one where the function is entirely non-political. Strange to say, too, the Governor was one of the men representing the State who had the matter in charge with the Navy Department of settling on the time and place for this important ceremony, but we suppose the silver-tongued Lieutenant Governor will be on hand to represent the State, and while the presence of the chief executive will be greatly regretted, he will be most ably represented by his substitute while out of the State. Those who are fortunate enough to be able to attend will, we know, greatly enjoy the ceremony.

REPUBLICANS' DILEMMA.

Taking a more accurate hindsight than they did foresight of the political situation in Indiana, the Republicans who manipulated the nomination of Mr. Taft find that they have caused a rather alarming state of affairs as far as their party is concerned in the State of Indiana. Indiana is a very important State for them. She casts thirty electoral votes in a Presidential contest. Thirty votes are going to be worth struggling for in the November election. The Taft men now see that they have acted in a way likely to cause their candidate to lose the vote of that State. It is going to be hard work on the part of the Republican campaign managers to keep many members of their party in that State from sulking on election day and staying from the polls. They are beginning to recognize that fact and that something must be done. The feeling in Indiana is likely to extend to other States in that section of the country. This is causing alarm to the Republicans who forced Taft on the party. They see they went too far in the Chicago convention. How to remedy the error is the perplexing question. The next question is: Are the Democrats shrewd enough to take advantage of the situation?

A movement has been started in Mr. Cleveland's native conty to raise a fund for the erection of a monument to the ex-President. There should be no trouble in raising the necessary funds for a handsome public testimonial, in the form of a splendid monument, to the perpetual memory of this great American citizen.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Mr. Bryan naturally spurns Tom Lawson's offer. First of all there's no such words as "second place" in Mr. Bryan's vocabulary, and secondly he doesn't need the money. He's a rich man and expects to be richer. —Chattanooga Times.

—In other days the ideas of Mr. Cleveland and those of this newspaper with regard to many things were notoriously not in accord. This circumstance possibly makes it proper to say now what it will always be pleasant for us to remember, namely, that the personal breach ceased to exist years ago, and The Sun has long numbered Grover Cleveland among its constant readers and faithful friends. Peace to the ashes of the good many and great leader, and my the generations hold his name and the memory of his deeds in just and high esteem. —New York Sun.

—Governor Johnson dies game. Despite the rush during recent weeks for the band wagon of the gentleman who believes in government ownership of railroads and other doctrines not remotely Democratic, the Minnesotan announces that his name will be presented at Denver as a presidential aspirant. Rather unexpected anti-Bryan action by several States, including Georgia, within the past ten days has even revived hope among some of those Democrats who are loath to see one of the best opportunities a political party ever had sacrificed for the already pampered and spoiled Mr. Bryan—hope, however, in which we do not share.—Charlotte Observer.

—There is a large unattached vote in this State—a vote which, under fair electoral methods, free from manipulation and trickery, controls the political situation. In 1900 McKinley and Roosevelt carried Maryland by a plurality of 13,941, and the Republican candidate for President was given the entire electoral vote of the State. In 1904 Roosevelt and Fairbank carried Maryland by a plurality of 7,751, but owing to the manipulative doings which were rendered possible in the provisions of a law popularly known as "the trick ballot law," only one of the eight electoral college votes of the State was cast for Roosevelt. The figures of the two most recent presidential years demonstrate, however, that the same description which General Woodford applied to New York fits Maryland. It is not Democratic; it is not Republican; it is a doubtful State.—Baltimore American.

—Although the turbine-driven ship has hardly commenced its career, there are not a few people both in Great Britain and in this country who contend that it will not be long before steam power will be discarded altogether for war purposes and gas engines will be substituted. That the gas engine has made remarkable strides in recent years cannot be denied, but it seems still a long way from the small gas engines now used for marine purposes and the mammoth engines that would be required to drive a battleship. That gas engines would have great advantages over steam there can be no doubt. There would be the elimination of smoke ,the absence of the towering funnels which make such conspicuous marks and which obscure signals by the volume of smoke they emit. There would also be less need for the big ventilators to give draft to the fire-rooms whose huge hoods are now such conspicuous objects above a ship's decks. A still greater advantage would be the saving of the large amount of space devoted to boilers and to coal bunkers. Of course, fuel would have to be carried, but oil fuel or gasoline, which is the same thing, could be carried in double bottoms and in tanks, which would take up less space than bunkers.—New Orleans Picayune.

—American gentlewomen rarely have and never seek opportunities to make their qualities known. They do their work quietly and obscurely but none the less effectively in impressing their high ideals and purposes and their pure and noble views of life on their husbands and children and in the home atmosphere they create. Whenever circumstances force them into prominence, however, they demonstrate invariably the fine and beautiful characteristics that make the American people great. Mrs. Grover Cleveland first became known to the ccuntry about twenty-five years ago when she went to the White House as the bride of the President of the United States. Since that time she had to perform many trying duties and has been more or less in the public eye. In every emergency and condition she has borne herself with absolute dignity and given the country cause to be proud of her and to accept her gladly as the typical American woman of her class. The most recent demonstration of the modesty and diginty of her character and thought is given in the arrangement for the funeral of the great man who was her husband. All the pomp of the country was at her service. She preferred a quiet, simple, unostentatious ceremony and had her dead laid away with no more display than attends the burial of the humblest citizen.—Richmond News Leader.

WHITE TRIED YESTERDAY.

Negro Who Shot Harrison Ballard Placed Under Heavy Bond.

Ivy White, colored, arrested several days ago for an alleged assault with a shot gun upon Harrison Ballard, was given a preliminary trial before Justice Sykes Saturday afternoon and after a lengthy hearing in which a number of witnesses were examined the defendant was placed under a bond of $50, which he gave and was released.

It will be remembered that Ballard was badly hurt, receiving a partial load of bird shot in his left arm and side. He declared that White was the party who shot him, for the reason that an altercation took place between them only a short time before he left the city to return to his home on Middle Sound. Both of the participants live in the same neighborhood and Ballard was shot as he attempted to unlock his door last Saturday night a week ago.

White disclaimed all knowledge of the assault, but the evidence was just as to justify probable cause. This case excited much interest among the people who live on Middle Sound and the little court room, on Princess street, where the trial was held, was filled to its capacity.

White was arrested by Constable Savage last Monday and placed in jail to await trial, this being delayed until Ballard had sufficiently recovered to be present at the hearing. He was under treatment at the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

White brought an indictment against Ballard for an assault, to which charge he submitted and was taxed with the costs of the action.

INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS.

Against the Government by Certain Distillers of Ohio.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, June 27.—Commissioner Capers, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, has received information from Cincinnati, Ohio, that the United States Circuit Court there had granted a temporary restraining order to show cause why a temporary injunction should not issue to restrain the collectors and guagers from marking the distillers' packages in accordance with regulations issued by the Treasury Department May 5th, last.

Counsel for the distillers in a telegram to the commissioner here have asked in order to avoid the beginning of a large number of suits that he direct the suspension of the regulations pending a hearing in the case.

Commissioner Capers will reply that he will not take action until he has consulted with the Secretary of the Treasury on Monday next.

The injunction suit was brought by the Clifton Springs Distilling Company.

Ever since the matter of marking packages of spirits under the pure food law was taken up by the officials with a view to formulating of regulations governing the same the distillers have taken great interest therein and have frequently entered their protests against the views of the department of Justice and the Treasury Department.

—Industrial News: Word has reached us to the effect that Horne would have been nominated on the fifth ballot had the movement not been spiked by Congressman Crawford. The Craig forces, or rather the Simmons-Aycock forces, had planned to throw their support to the farmer candidate, when much to the astonishment of the Craig people, it was discovered that Congressman Crawford had a sort of working agreement with Congressman Kitchin, and the gentleman from the tenth let it be known that, in the event of a break, a lot of his mountain friends were mighty apt to go to Kitchin. The result was that the whole movement had to be called off. Of course this report may have little foundation in fact, but we pass it along as convention gossip, for what it is worth. They do say, however, that the Craig adherents were all put out when they made the discovery of the Kitchin-Crawford second alliance. The gossip is that the two Congressmen made this arrangement while they were in Washington.

—Charlotte Observer: Only about a mile of the road between Charlotte and Gastonia remains unmacadamized and it is only a question of a few days when this will be put in first-class condition. From Gastonia to Charlotte by the macadam road is about 24 miles. It is a noteworthy fact that in this 24 miles one is never, except for a very few minutes at a time, out of sight of a cotton mill. Leaving the Flint at Gastonia behind, one finds himself in a very few minutes passing the three fine mills at Lowell and before he knows it the magnificent plants of the McAden Mills, so picturesquely situated on the banks of the South Fork, are in sight. Then, in another short space of time, he sees the Chronicle and Imperial Mills at Belmont. It is noted that the walls of the new mill at Belmont are up and work is progressing nicely on it. At the present rate at which work is moving along this mill will be ready for turning out goods pretty early in the fall. From here on there is a good little distance before another mill comes in sight, this being the Elizabeth Mill just west of Charlotte.

In a freight wreck on the Clinch Valley division of the Norfolk & Western Railroad Saturday Engineer Patrick Wyrick and his fireman, A. L. Meadows, both of Bluefield, W. Va., were killed. The engine left the track near Saint Paul, Va., and rolled down an embankment. Meadows was caught under the locomotive. Wyrick died of burns in an hour.

He Got What He Needed.

I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c.

Married a Wilmington Lady.

Wilmington people will be interested to know that Hon. W. C. Newland, of Caldwell, who has just been nominated by the State Democratic Convention at Charlotte for Lieutenant Governor, married a Wilmington lady, a daughter of the late Mr. Colville, one of the pioneer lumber mill men of this city as a member of the firm of Colville & Taylor, who operated a large plant where the Champion Compress now stands. Mr. Newland is spoken of in the highest terms by all who had the pleasure of meeting him at Charlotte.

Police Court Proceedings.

The session of the Mayor's court yesterday was rather lengthy, due to the many cases for minor offenses on Monday. There was not a single higher court case, which is somewhat unusual for Monday's session. Eugene Pearsall and Lucy Roberts, for an affray were given sentences of thirty days each, and James Sanders, for the same offense, was sentenced to thirty days.

cast for Clement by Mecklenburg as he got it in the primary.

There was fierce excitement during this clash. When the fifth ballot was read out, Mr. Rayden Clement advanced to the front and said:

"The vote on that last ballot was a great surprise. I thought that everyone understood that my friends had withdrawn my name from the race. I hereby announce that I have withdrawn from the contest and in doing so, I want to thank all my loyal friends for the support which they have given me."

"Though it is hard for a young man to feel defeat, I can say that I leave this convention with a clear conscience and with the feeling that I have said nothing or done nothing against any man.

"The Tenth District has voted against me, and now that my name has been withdrawn, I will tell you why. It was because Rowan gave two of Horne's votes to Mr. Kitchin. I had nothing to do with that. I stayed with my delegation three days and nights, but when I was absent, the delegation made this change. I have no hard feeling against the Tenth District and whenever Locke Craig wants a friend in Rowan he has only to come to me."

Platform is Adopted.

Gov. Doughton read the report of the committee on platform. This report highly commends the administration of Governor Glenn and attributes the present condition of business to Republican policies. It advises the revoking of license of foreign and withdrawal of charter of domestic corporations if they are known to contribute money for campaign purposes. The party so long in power, is equally guilty with the corporation in a basis existing. The platform denounces the vacillating policy of the Republicans of the last Congress and the Aldrich bill. This bill turns over to the New York Stock Exchange, the United States Treasury, for six years. We condemn the power which admits an inferior judge to overturn a State court.

The platform was strong, pointed and a concise declaration of Democratic principles and an ungloved handling of Republican policies.

For a State Primary.

The resolution of Solicitor Hammer for a State primary to be held in every county of the State on the same day precipitated a debate of a serious nature in which the strong and weak points were thoroughly dissected. The general opinion was favorable to the resolution. Mr. Pou offered a substitute that the next Legislature by special enactment, provide such a primary as is most needed. Mr. Pou's substitute was voted down. The original resolution, however, was unanimously carried.

The convention then began debating instructions of the delegates to Denver and endorsement of Bryan. A motion to instruct finally passed by a vote of 523 to 194. The offering of these resolutions brought on the fiercest contest of the convention which has lasted six days. There was a dissent from the report of the committee on resolutions, by one of the members, of which no notice was taken. Many in the convention fought hard against the endorsement of Bryan, declaring that it was not necessary; that he would be the nominee anyhow, etc., and that it would be a slap in the face to Democrats who were not in favor of Mr. Bryan. After an hour's turmoil over the resolutions, a roll call was demanded and had with the results named above. The convention then adjourned and delegates are leaving on every train.

McLEOD WAS CAUUGHT

Negro Who Stole From Mr. E. Norfleet Was Apprehended.

After being at large for several months, Turner McLeod, colored, who stole a number of valuable articles from Mr. E. Norfleet was captured yesterday and was sent to jail in default of bond pending a preliminary trial. The negro formerly worked for Mr. Norfleet and after he made a raid on all the valuables in sight among which was a pistol and a small amount of money, he left this community and only recently returned. Yesterday Mr. Norfleet met him on the street, and induced him to go to his place of business, the negro being apparently unaware of his purpose. He was soon afterwards carried to the Court House, by Justice Bornemann and placed in charge of Constable Savage .

The trial was set for yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, but was necessarily postponed. McLeod asknowledges the theft of the pistol.

ly justified in dismissing the officer. The finding as to Health Officer J. H. Holton was not read until later.

Attorney Woodus Kellum was present and asked in behalf of his client, Mr. Hewlett, that the case be postponed as he had no notice of this meeting and happened to be present only in another matter. Mr. Kellum said that he was not ready and spoke at length asking for time. There were several motions and counter motions to proceed, to postpone and to take the matter up at the regular meeting next Monday night. A motion was finally submitted that the case be postponed until a special meeting some time next week, but this was lost, only Messrs. O'Brien, Rathjen, Jewell and King voting in the affimative.

Mr. French then made a motion that the report be received, sustaining the Superintendent of Health. There were calls for the evidence in the case and Chairman Ellis began a verbal statement of the testimony. Mr. Kellum interrupted and spoke heatedly, saying that he had new testimony, had not had notice of the meeting and appealed to the Board to give his client a fair hearing. Herbert McClammy, Esq., who was present in behalf of Mr. Holton, begged pardon, and made the suggestion which was later accepted, that the whole matter be referred back to the committee for further investigation, report to be made to a special meeting of the Board. This was carried unanimously.

Case of Mr. Holton.

Two reports were then made as to the case of Mr. Holton, the majority signed by Chairman Ellis and Alderman Jewell, finding that while Mr. Holton may have been indiscreet in a few instances in his attitude toward the public, the committee did not consider the evidence against him such as to warrant his dismissal and recommended that he be reinstated in his former position without pay for the time lost, a minority report being made by Alderman Karr, recommending that the Superintendent of Health be fully sustained and that Mr. Holton be permanently dismissed.

Several members of the Board spoke and Herbert McClammy, Esq., counsel for Mr. Holton, addressed the meeting. The evidence as taken before the committee was next read and a petition from 202 persons in the officer's district was presented, testifying to Mr. Holton's high character and efficiency as a health inspector.

Dr. Harper was about to present a counter petition but Mr. McClammy very ingeniously objected to new testimony and the Board in good humor unanimously ruled that the new evidence was not competent.

There was then a motion that Dr. Harper be heard, but the Board differed in its opinion as to whether or not it would be proper for Dr. Harper to be introduced again as he would necessarily have to bring in new evidence. Upon a vote Dr. Bolles and Messrs. Karr, O'Brien, Rathjen and King were for hearing Dr. Harper and the five others were against. The Mayor decided the tie by voting that Dr. Harper be heard. Mr. King moved to reconsider the vote by which Dr. Harper was to be heard; seconded by Mr. Wood. The vote again stood five to five. The Mayor cast off the tie a second time, and Dr. Harper was heard, giving a recital of the complaints against Mr. Holton. Mr. McClammy objected when Dr. Harper began to tell of complaints that had been made since the investigation by the committee. The objection was sustained.

Mr. French moved that the minority report be accepted; seconded by Dr. Bolles. A motion had previously been made that the majority report be received.

Before taking a vote, Mr. McClammy was heard. He said that no one recognized the importance of the Health Department more than he; that not one syllable had been uttered against the efficiency of Mr. Holton; that the chief complaint against Mr. Holton was that he had fearlessly and impartially discharged his duty. He cautioned the Board to think well before landing this man out of his office. Mr. McClammy spoke eloquently and well.

The vote was first taken on the majority report to re-instate Mr. Holton but this was lost only Messrs. Ellis, Wood, Jewell and King voting in the affirmative. Those voting against reinstatement and for the minority report by Mr. Karr, fully sustaining Superintendent Harper and making Mr. Holton's dismissal permanent were Messrs. Northrop, French, Bolles, Karr, O'Brien and Rathjen.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and aboveboard."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs — without drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick woman are asked to write?

Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

Goldsboro Wins From Champions.

Wilson, N. C., June 29.—This afternoon on their own grounds, the Tobacconists were defeated in one of the snappiest, well-played games of the season. The game was well played by both teams but Goldsboro played just a little the best, as the score shows. The Tobacconists are it yet. They will recover their rabbit's foot tonight and tomorrow we'll see. Features of the game heavy hitting by both teams. The score:

Diamond Dust.

The game yesterday at Kinston was taken in detail at the store of the Gerken Tobacco Company, which was filled almost to suffocation with the Wilmington fans, who went wild when the news came that Captain Smithey had lifted one over the fence. Every play on the diamond was megaphoned to the anxious multitude as Operator R. H. Orrell handed it up to the man with the horn. The enterprise of the Gerken Tobacco Co., in this respect, was much appreciated by the fans, who will doubtless turn out in even larger number this afternoon to hear returns.

It will be a pleasant bit of information to the Wilmington fans to know that Catcher Bert Kite, of Wilmington team, will on Wednesday of this week become a benedict, claiming as a bride a talented young lady from his home town, who will join him here tomorrow. The ceremony will be performed in this city and Mr. and Mrs. Kite will be at home at the residence of Mrs. Clowe, on Princess street. The faithful in Wilmington are preparing to give Bridegroom Kite quite an enthusiastic reception upon his appearance on the ball field for the games with Kinston here the last half of the week.

Another pitcher is on the way and will join the Sailors in Kinston. The management of the Wilmington team is sparing no effort nor expense in keeping the team on a winning basis

THANKS TO THE LADIES

Appreciation of Their Work by Hospital Board of Managers.

In behalf of the patients of the James Walker Memorial Hospital who are the recipients and beneficiaries, the Board of Managers desire to acknowledge the useful and generous gift from the ladies composing the Hospital Circle of the Kings Daughters, of some sixty bedside tables whereby the sick can be more comfortably served and which have proven a very great convenience and pleasure to them. These good ladies propose to make an addition to their gift by supplying trays to go with these tables so as to make the offering complete. The Hospital and its patients have much to thank the ladies of this city for—their thoughtful consideration and the many additions to the equipment looking to the comfort and care of these sick and weary ones—and the Board of Managers desire thus publicly to express their appreciation of these good Samaritans, who seeing the need for these little additions and conveniences proceed to procure them as they have the opportunity and thus are contributing to the alleviation of the suffering besides giving encouragement to the Management as it would be impossible to procure these articles which are such a source of solace to the sick were it not for the aid, co-operation and assistance of these good women, who have so freely responded in the past, and are looking at the present to add still more of these useful and at times necessary things.

Women have always been quick to respond to the call of the needy, they ministered to the Master when He was weary, and all down the pages of history we find her visiting the sick and those in prison, clothing the naked, feeding the hungry and in our local work, she is still visiting the sick, bringing flowers to cheer and illumine their rooms or the public wards, reading to them at the bedside and performing many little acts of kindness, which the sick and destitute so much appreciate. We feel this public confession is due the women of the city for the many acts of kindness and mercy which like "the gentle rain from heaven" is a blessing to those who have been the recipients and partakers of these benefits.

GEO. R. FRENCH.
Secretary Board of Managers.

MEXICAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

Our Government Ready to Assist Mexico in Their Capture.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, June 29.—There is a possibility that United States troops may be called on to arrest any of the Mexican revolutionists who may cross the border in the effort to escape from the Mexican authorities. It cannot be learned that any actual orders to this effect have been given, as none of the officials having to do with the matter is willing to discuss just what is being done, except that every step possible is being taken to see that the neutrality laws shall be enforced. The United States authorities are sincerely working to this end and assurances have been received from the Attorney General of the United States and Governor Campbell, of Texas, that everything will be done to compel a strict enforcement of the law. Several military posts are in proximity to the border of Texas touching the State of Del Rio, where the Mexican revolutionists see mto be doing most of their work and troops may be made ready quickly for any service required of them. Senor Godoy, the Mexican charge at Washington, today had a talk with Acting Secretary Adee of the State department at which the situation was discussed.

Mexico and the United States have an agreement whereby the troops of either country may cross the boundary of the other in pursuit of hostile Indians which may serve as the basis for any steps that might be taken in assisting Mexico to capture the revolutionists.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Greensboro Telegram: Saturday was a big day at the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, it being the 23d anniversary of the establishment of the institution. More than 5,000 Baptists from all parts of the State were present to hear the annual sermon and to witness the exercises by the children.

—Newbern Journal: There seems to be a growing dissatisfaction with the tightness of the Sunday lid, otherwise the Sunday closing law, with only one drug store open it is said to be difficult for a person to always get a prescription filled, either for want of money, credit or otherwise. Not being allowed to sell things other than fill prescriptions, the druggists cannot afford to stay around their stores all Sunday waiting for these, hence they close up entirely.

—Charlotte Observer: Six Woodmen monuments, fraternal testimonials to the memory of deceased sovereigns of the order and late members of the local camps, will be unveiled at Elmwood Cemetery this afternoon at 4 o'clock with appropriate exercises District Deputy Organizer W. S. Charles and Consul Commander G. A. Page will have charge of the ceremonies. The uniformed degree team of Hornets' Nest camp will take part in the work. Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, rector of St. Peters Episcopal Church, will deliver the oration.

—Wilkesboro Patriot: Mr. John Davis, of Goshen, was placed in prison here Friday to serve ten days for contempt of court. Some time ago he stipulated to sell and did sell his plantation, retaining, as he thought, among other things, a privilege to pasture upon and get wood from the land. This, however, was not put in the deed, and when he insisted upon this particular point a restraining order was secured and served upon him. He ignored the order and was consequently found guilty of contempt. He is 84 years old and this is his first trouble.

—Wilson Times: The organization of the Wilson Chamber of Commerce was perfected last night when a number of business men, members of the Business Men's Association and the Tobaco Board of Trade met in the court house to hear the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting; this committee being authorized to select and recommend the officers of the association. They recommended the following officers: Mr. J. D. Oettinger, president; Mr. W. J. Boykin, first vice president; Mr. George W. Connor, second vice president, and Mr. S. B. Rierson, secretary and treasurer; board of directors, Messrs. Geo. Hackney, Sr., J. F. Bruton, R. P. Watson, J. S. Bynum, J. C. Eagles, J. D. Taylor, and W. F. Clark.

—Asheville Gazette-News: Deputy United States Marshal R. S. Ramsey has just returned from the mountains of Haywood and Madison counties where he, in company with Deputy Collector R. F. Henry, of Franklin, and T. N. Ramsey captured and destroyed two of the most artfully concealed blockade stills in the whole of western North Carolina. The stills were situated in the high mountains near the boundary lines of Haywood and Madison counties, and at least one of them is supposed to belong to Freeman Reece, of Madison county. The still was cleverly concealed in a hole in a laurel thicket and had been covered with boards, over which dirt had been thrown and moss planted, so that at a casual glance one would detect nothing out of the ordinary. Water was conducted from a small branch for about 250 yards through a well concealed underground passage. This kept the officers guessing for quite a while as they knew the probable location of the still but could find no traces of it along the stream. The still was in active use and 13 fermenters and several hundred gallons of "beer" were destroyed together with the still. Near this still was also found a furnace and a place of refuge for blockaders. The still was not in use at the time of its capture. This still was concealed in a depression on the side of a branch bank, and old logs had been thrown over the hole in such a way as to completely hide it and leave the idea with any one passing that it was merely a log heap from the near-by clearing. To avoid detection by the smoke from the still, a canal was dug from the still out into the cleared field and ended in the hollow of an old stump. The smoke was conducted up this canal and coming out under the stump would lead one to believe that the stump was on fire. One of the boldest and cleverest pieces of blockading perhaps that has occurred in western North Carolina recently was a still that was in operation in the Pigeon river section of Haywood county, a few months ago. This still was concealed in a large laurel thicket near a cleared field and within 25 yards of a house. A small stream flowed from a spring just above the house and water from this was carried by an underground passage to the still. The cleverest part however, was in the disposition of the smoke. This still was situated in a hole in the thicket, and the covering of the hole was so well constructed that it caught all of the smoke and this was led by an underground route up the steep mountain side for about 20 yards where it issued forth from under a large wash pot, around which a fire was kept burning all the time the still was in operation, and a few old rags were always in the pot, so that anyone passing would never suspect that the wash pot served for a blind for the still.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is per ectly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—The cotton market was very quiet again today and after an opening decline fluctuations proved narrow and irregular with new crop months showing relative steadiness and the close steady at a net loss of 1 to 4 points. Sales for the day were estimated at only 75,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 11 to 14 points on near months and 4 to 5 points lower on later positions which was about in line with the cables. The old crop months were very quiet and may have been influenced to some extent by the circulation of a few additional July notices, but this position steadied up after midday in sympathy with late months and at ane time July was only five points net lower thus the new crop sold 2 to 3 points net higher on buying by spot houses and scattered covering by Wall street shorts notwithstanding the favorable average of weather from South Texas and parts of Alabama, while private wires reported undesired rains at points in Oklahoma and Arkansas. Otherwise weather and crop accounts were favorable including a private condition report issued by a local authority indicating an average condition of 82.4 per cent., comparing with last year's government report of 72 per cent., and 83.3 per cent., two years ago. There were reports of renewed curtailment among New England mills and trade advices from the continent continue favorable but spot advices were generally bullish as to conditions in the interior with the Southern markets officially reported unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Port receipts today were 8,981 bales against 8,438 last week and 1,345 last year and for the week 45,000 against 43,523 last week and 41,208 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 3,246 bales against 108 last year and at Houston 1,321 bales against 590 last year.

Spot dull, 10 points lower; middling uplands 11.15; middling gulf 11.75; sales 200 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—In the dry goods market bleached cottons were advanced during the day to a basis of 8 1-2c for fruit of the loom and 8 1-4 for the lonsdales. The demand has been sufficient to take care of the output through July and August. More export business with far eastern markets was tendered during the day but the low prices named by some prospective buyers precluded the consumation of the trades. Foreign goods for July and August shipment are in better call. Raw silk is 20 cents per pound lower on some special brands. General trade during the day was quiet.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, June 29.—The stock market was apathetic today and the sluggish drift of prices represented nothing more substantial than the testing operations of professionals and there was little to indicate any notable change in fundamental conditions. The present firm undertone of the market evidently is based on the conviction that improvement lies ahead and poor showing of present conditions seems not to have much effect in shaking this conviction.

Railroad earnings reports show no sign of the promised improvement in business net earnings for May being poorer than those of April, as April was poorer than March. The Atchison return ma detoday improves the May average thus far shown, the gross decrease of $1,790,502 being cut down in the net return to a $529,147 loss by the curtailment of operating costs. The Washington estimates of a $60,000,000 deficit in the government revenues for the fiscal year ending tomorrow point to the necessity of early additional withdrawals of government deposits from the National banks. Some of the demand which advanced prices as the day progressed was attributed to covering of shorts put out early last week.

Bonds were irregular. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales par value $2,104,000. Total sales today 295,200 shares.

He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. THE DEMOCRATS NOW AT DENVER

Making Preparations For The Meeting of The Party's National Convention.

SETTLING PRELIMINARIES

Matter of Contests Before the National Committee—Two Questions Likely to be Disturbing Elements in Drafting Platform.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Denver, Colo., June 29.—The fight over the anti-injunction plank in the Democratic platform is not the only struggle in which the committee on resolutions and possibly the convention itself may be involved.

It developed today that the Prohibition question is to be brought to the front and that a desperate effort will be made to have a plank declaring in its favor placed in the platform. The Prohibition movement will be headed by General James B. Weaver, of Iowa, who demanded of the recent Democratic convention in that State that it declare in favor of Prohibition. General Weaver and his followers were not successful in their efforts in their own State, but, not daunted by their failure, have made arrangements to bring the matter up before the Democratic National convention. They claim, moreover, to have strong backing from a number of delegations from Southern States which have recently passed Prohibition laws.

The anti-injunction plank continues to provoke a large amount of discussion among such party leaders as have already arrived for the convention. While opinions differ as to the exact nature of the plank which should be adopted ,all are of one mind in saying that it shall be a definite and specific statement. Such members of the national committee as have discussed the matter are a unit in saying that the wording of the injunction plank shall leave no possible doubt in the mind of any reader as to where the party stands on this question.

It is now generally believed, however, that the anti-injunction resolution will not provide for trials by jury in cases of contempt of court, or favor in any way measures which might be construed as interferring with the prerogatives of the Federal courts.

The friends of Mr. Bryan say that such of his critics as are already expressing themselves in fear of a radical anti-injunction plank are fighting the air. The plank has not yet been written; it has not been drafted, and its form is still a matter which is under deep and careful consideration. It is said to be the desire of Mr. Bryan to consult with as many of the prominent members of the party as possible before any decisive action in formulating this resolution is taken.

The Vice Presidential situation remains, to all appearances, just where it was yesterday, although the boom of Lieutenant Governor Chanler, of New York, seems to have weakened somewhat and his name is not mentioned as prominently as it was two days ago. This is largely due to the announcement made by Norman E. Mack, national committeeman from New York, that he has no authority to speak for Mr. Chanler, and that his interest in the movement was dictated by a sincere belief that the New York official is well qualified for the office.

Only one new name was mentioned as a Vice Presidential possibility. The was Governor George E. Chamberlain, of Oregon. He is in much favor with some of the party leaders and it is said that he will be personally acceptable to Mr. Bryan if the latter is nominated.

Notices of contests have been filed with the national committee involving 45 seats, but of this number the contests actually filed relate to 13 seats. Six of these are from the District of Columbia, the contest having been filed today, and seven are from the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Pennsylvania Congressional districts. The First and Second districts, however, only one seat each is in dispute Notices of contests yet to be filed came from Chicago and Brooklyn. In the Chicago cases the First to the Tenth Congressional districts are involved, the contesting delegations being led by Robert E. Burke, of Chicago. Contesting delegations from Brooklyn will come from the Second to the Seventh New York Congressional districts inclusive, and relate to the McCarren-Murphy fight. Two delegations at large were elected in Idaho, but no notice of contest against the seating of the delegation headed by former Senator DuBois has been received. Contests may be filed any time before the meeting of the national committee on July 6th.

The committee on convention arrangements paid a visit today to the auditorium, which was pregnant in results as far as increasing the seating capacity of the hall is concerned, but which brought woe to Architect Wilson. That gentleman had arranged the seating capacity in such a way as to produce the most pleasing effect in the eye of the spectators. In so doing, however, he had left a considerable amount of vacant floor space, much of which was in extra width given to the aisles.

The net result of the visit was that the seating capacity of the hall was at once increased from the original number from 11,538 to more than 12,700. The alterations suggested today also resulted in allowing 75 additional seats for members of the press.

The national committee, which for several days has been in cramped quarters on one of the upper floors of the Brown Palace Hotel, today moved into the more commodious quarters on the parlor floor which it will occupy until after the convention has adjourned.

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN

The Question of Selection Still Unsettled—To be Taken Up July 8th. Conferences With the Candidates—Situation in Ohio.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, June 29.—Secretary Taft today successfully combined his official duties with politics.

By far the most important conference of the day was that which he had this afternoon with a delegation representing the political organization of the Republican party in his home State of Ohio. Walter Brown, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee; Henry Williams, chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, and N. A. Guilbert, State Auditor, came to Washington to urge Secretary Taft favorably to consider Arthur I. Vorys in connection with the selection of a Republican National chairman. They discussed the matter with Secretary Taft at considerable length, indicating to him that the appointment meant much to the Republican organization in Ohio. They expressed an apprehension that the selection of anybody else than Mr. Vorys might tend to disrupt the organization in Ohio, which largely had been built up by Mr. Vorys. At the conclusion of the conference Secretary Taft authorized the members to telegraph to Mr. Vorys requesting him to come to Washington and meet him on next Wednesday when he retires as Secretary of War.

Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, the Secretary's brother, who arrived yesterday, has been in conference with the War Secretary much of the time today. He left tonight for his home.

Frank H. Hitchcock arrived here today from Chicago and will be engaged for several days in the work of closing up the Taft headquarters in this city. Mr. Hitchcock declined to discuss for publication the National chairmanship question in any way. He said that he expected to have a conference with Secretary Taft in a day or two.

Every effort was made today to learn something definite respecting the choice of a National chairman, but Secretary Taft himself tonight said:

"No announcement concerning the National chairmanship will be made until I have conferred further with the sub-committee of the National Committee. That conference will be held at Hot Springs. Mrs. Taft has informed me that she will be ready to leave Washington for Hot Springs next Friday. I shall, therefore notify the members of the sub-committee to meet me there on July 8. The chairmanship matter will be determined then and not before then.

THE THAW CASE.

Argument on Changing His Place of Confinement.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

White Plains, N. Y., June 29.—Harry K. Thaw's chances for a jury trial as to his sanity appear to be very bright. At the conclusion of argument before Justice Mills this afternoon the justice said:

"I believe it should be only a matter of time when this man ought to have a jury trial. I am not prepared to say whether it should be now or later."

The judge then ordered that Thaw should be detained in the Poughkeepsie jail and adjourned the case to July 13, when new arguments and affidavits will be submitted. Thaw was taken back to Poughkeepsie this afternoon.

Thaw arrived from Poughkeepsie this morning, accompanied by his counsel. District Attorney Jerome, Mr. Conger and Mr. Vincent had arrived shortly before.

Colonel Bartlett began an address on the legal points involved in the habeas corpus after which Mr. Jerome addressed the court.

District Attorney Jerome made a long argument against Thaw going anywhere but to Matteawan, "the one proper place provided by the Legislature for the treatment for such prisoners." He declared that from any of the other State hospitals a man with $1,000 could escape as easily as he (Jerome) could buy a ticket to New York for 50 cents. He characterized the proceedings as "nonsense" and cried: "I most earnestly object to the hippodroming of this man from one county to another; such proceedings bring justice into disrepute. I regard Thaw as a dangerous paranoiac, who seeks an opportunity to escape out of the jurisdiction of this State to which he cannot be returned under requisition."

THE INTER-STATE SUIT

Hearing in the Virginia-West Virginia Case Set For Nov. 9th.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, June 29.—Preliminary steps looking to the adjudication of the Virginia-West Virginia debt suit, now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States were taken at a conference here today between former Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, and counsel for the two States. It was decided that the first formal hearing in the case shall be held at Richmond, Va., November 9th next before Mr. L'ttlefield, the master in the proceedings. That date was selected in order to permit of conferences between counsel representing Virginia and West Virginia, with a view, if possible, to reaching an agreement upon many minor points involved in the case.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON'S POSITION

Will Be Candidate For President, But Not For Vice President.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Des Moines, Ia., June 29.—"I am not going to Denver," said Governor Johnson in an interview here today. "The story was out that I would be there, but it is not true. I propose to tend to my own knitting and run the State of Minnesota in the best possible way, and do a little Chautauqua work on the side. However, I will be represented at Denver. Mr. Day, Mr. Myers and other good political and personal friends of mine will be there. They will attend to my interests, if you call it interests."

"If Bryan is the choice of the convention will you seek recognition from the National party by agreeing to accept the Vice Presidential nomination?"

"No, no," he said hurriedly. "I am a candidate for the Presidential nomination of my party. If I do not get it I am not a candidate for anything else. My friends strictly understand this point. They know conclusively that I do not seek other than the nomination for the first place. It is up to the party. If they think I can add strength to the ticket as Presidential nominee then I am ready to exert the best leadership that I possibly can to put the party into National power."

Mr. Johnson addressed the Chautauqua assembly here tonight.

THE MAE WOOD INDICTMENT.

Senator Platt and Others Testify Before the Grand Jury.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 29.—United States Senator Thomas C. Platt was wheeled in a chair into the grand jury room in the criminal court building today to testify in the case of Mae Wood, who is charged with perjury in her suit for alleged divorce from the Senator, which collapsed several weeks ago. The evidence was presented to the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Garvan. Edward Roland, the Senator's ex-valet and Edward C. Hafeley, a printer, were also witnesses before the grand jury today. It was chiefly Mr. Hafeley's evidence which caused the failure of the woman's case against the Senator and brought about her arrest and commitment under orders of Judge O'Gorman who heard the evidence in the divorce case. Mr. Hafeley printed the blank forms of the marriage certificate which Miss Wood offered in court filled out to prove that she had been married to the Senator. Mr. Hafeley testified that these blanks were not printed until three months after the date on which Miss Wood alleged that she was married. Miss Wood testified that the certificate was filled out within a few hours after the ceremony was performed. She is now at liberty under bail.

THE AMERICA'S CUP.

Sir Thomas Lipton to Make Another Try to Secure It.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

London, June 29.—The Field, a weekly publication, announces that Sir Thomas Lipton is prepared to challenge again for the America's sup under the following conditions:

1. The new yacht shall be cutter rigged and built under the present universal rule of the New York Yacht Club.

2. The New York Yacht Club shall designate the size of the yacht it considers most suitable for the race.

Sir Thomas, when seen by The Associated Press at Dunoon, Scotland, today, said that the Field's statement was perfectly correct. He added:

"I hope my American friends will see their way clear to meet my wishes in the interests of sport. The size of the boat is no object and I am willing to build under the universal rule. If I can get assurance that a challenge will be accepted I will issue it forthwith."

It is understood that the intention of Sir Thomas, with New York Yacht Club's permission, is to build two yachts of a class designated by that club after designs by Fife and to select the better to compete for the cup.
